

Around PCN

Late Night on Main

October 5, 9-11:55p.m.

Main Street

Come early for dinner to meet up with friends and you may end up dancing in the street! Live music begins on Main Street at 9 p.m. and entertainment continues until midnight throughout the District. Many shops, galleries and restaurants will be open late. Be part of Carmel's Late Night on Main!

Gallery Walk

October 13, 5-9 p.m.

Arts & Design District on Main Street

Join us for our IU Health North Second Saturday Gallery Walk in the Arts & Design District. Start your evening out with dinner from a local restaurant and then participate in our scavenger hunt to win prizes, get your face painted and participate in our monthly activities.

Leaves and Yard Debris

Part of PCN's beauty is the wide variety of trees. In fact, the original developer specified that each yard has three different species in front of the home. However, with so many types of trees, we also have a "long fall," as some of those trees shed their leaves in September and others not until December, at least in some years.

Part of our trash service with Republic is that they will pick up as many as 20 bags of leaves or yard debris PER WEEK when you put them by your trash bin. Please cut branches 4 foot lengths or shorter and bundle them for easy pick-up. The city website says we are allowed one such bundle per week. Yard debris pick up is for Oct. 15 to Dec. 15 and again in April and May for spring clean-up.

Advance note: Republic will also pick up holiday/Christmas trees from December 26 until a date (unknown at this time) in January. The company asks that tree be cut in half.

Thanks to everyone who attended the Neighborhood Block Party. We welcomed new families to the neighborhood and had chance to meet long-time neighbors from other streets.

Thanks, also, to businesses that contributed toward door prizes: Scotty's Brewhouse; Rackz BBQ; Pizza Hut; Giuseppe's Italian Bakery; Suburban Indy Home & Outdoor Living Show; Wodehouse Spa; Trends Hair Salon; King's Garden, and Pizzology.

YOUR BOARD IN ACTION

If you have a little time and an interest in how PCN operates as a homeowners' association, here is your chance. The annual meeting is December 3.

A packet will be mailed in November with an agenda and financials for your review. Every PCN resident and homeowner is invited. The HOA relies on residents. Here are some of the options:

- Officers (president, VP, secretary/treasurer)
- Voting board member, not an officer
- Non-voting board member
- Newsletter - writing, printing, or distributing
- A committee - architecture and social events
- Ad hoc activities such as plantings, celebrations.

Send questions or nominations to PlumCreekNorthHOA@gmail.com.

We want YOU for volunteers

Opportunities include:

- * Plantings & Lighting (review plans for and occasionally help with holiday lights, plantings during the growing season)
- * Family Activities (set up something and make arrangements with interested families, kid play times in the park or whatever, year-round)
- * Fall decorating contest judges (4th week of October) and Holiday Decor Judges (3rd week of December)
- * Easter Egg Hunt (2 weeks before Easter, typically)

Our annual fall decorating contest is starting NOW!

You choose what type of decor you want: spooky, scary, funny, or just fall colors. Three secret judges will take a walk between Thur. October 25 and Sun, October 28 to select the best three yards. Prizes will be gift certificates to local merchants and some of the best-looking houses will be posted on Facebook!
